Employment Standards in Ontario

The Employment Standards Act, 2000 (ESA) protects employees and sets minimum standards for most workplaces in Ontario. Employers are prohibited from penalizing employees in any way for exercising their rights under the ESA.

What you need to know

Public holidays

Ontario has a number of public holidays each year. Most employees are entitled to take these days off work and be paid public holiday pay. Visit Ontario.ca/publicholidays.

Hours of work and overtime

There are daily and weekly limits on hours of work. There are also rules around meal breaks, rest periods and overtime. Visit Ontario.ca/hoursofwork and Ontario.ca/overtime.

Termination notice and pay

In most cases when terminating employment, employers must give employees advance written notice of termination or termination pay instead of notice. Visit Ontario.ca/terminationofemployment.

Vacation time and pay

There are rules around the amount of vacation time and pay employees earn. Most employees can take vacation time after every 12 months of work. Visit Ontario.ca/vacation.

Leaves of absence

There are a number of job-protected leaves of absence in Ontario. Examples include sick leave, pregnancy leave, parental leave and family caregiver leave. Visit Ontario.ca/ESAguide.

Minimum wage

Most employees are entitled to be paid at least the minimum wage. For current rates visit Ontario.ca/minimumwage.

Other employment rights, exemptions and special rules

There are other rights, exemptions and special rules not listed on this poster, including rights to severance pay and special rules for assignment employees of temporary help agencies.

Employment Relationship, Agency Employee Status

Employment Relationship

I understand and acknowledge that:

- ☐ I am an employee of [Agency Name] while working on temporary, contract, or placement assignments arranged by [Agency Name].
- ☐ The client company where I perform work is the assignment workplace and does not become my employer unless a separate employment agreement is provided directly by the client.
- ☐ [Agency Name] is responsible for my employment records, payroll processing, and employment documentation while I remain employed through [Agency Name].

-Before each assignment, [Agency Name] will provide assignment information including: client name, work location, position title, pay rate, shift schedule, expected duration (if known), supervisor information, required PPE, and special workplace hazards (if applicable).

-I agree to immediately notify [Agency Name] if my work authorization changes, expires or is renewed.

Direct Hire / Client Employment

I understand that:

- ☐ If a client wishes to hire me directly, the employment relationship will only change after a formal offer and employment agreement is provided by the client.
- ☐ Until I am officially hired by the client, I remain a [Agency Name] employee and must follow [Agency Name] employment policies and procedures.
- ☐ Any change from agency employment to direct employment must be communicated and documented appropriately.

Ethical Recruitment & Human Trafficking Prevention Acknowledgement

[Agency Name] is committed to fair, ethical, and lawful recruitment practices. We do not support or participate in human trafficking, forced labour, child labour, or any form of exploitation.

I acknowledge and understand that:

☐ [Agency Name] verifies that all candidates are legally eligible to work and meet the minimum age requirements before employment or assignment placement.

☐ I confirm that I am 18 years of age or older and have provided accurate personal information during the recruitment process.

☐ [Agency Name] does not employ or place individuals in roles that involve child labour or unlawful working conditions.

☐ [Agency Name] does not permit forced labour, coercion, threats, or any form of exploitation in its recruitment or employment practices.

☐ [Agency Name] does not charge candidates any fees for recruitment, job placement, assignment opportunities, or employment opportunities.

☐ I understand that I should report any concerns related to unethical recruitment practices, exploitation, or improper requests for payment.

Personal Information Collection & Privacy Consent

I understand that [Agency Name] collects and uses my personal information for employment, staffing, payroll, and administrative purposes. I authorize [Agency Name] to collect, use, and maintain information including:

- ☐ Contact information
- ☐ Resume and employment history
- ☐ Education and certifications
- ☐ Work eligibility information

Selected Vacation Pay Option: [Candidate.VacationPayOption]

Pay Rate Questions & Support Process

- ☐ If I have any questions or concerns regarding my pay , I will first contact my assigned recruiter for clarification.
- ☐ If the concern requires further review, it will be escalated internally to the [Agency Name] Support Team to verify and ensure alignment with my confirmed offer details and employment records.

For payroll and HR support, I may contact:

HR Support: [Agency.HRSupportContact]

Accounts & Payroll Support: [Agency.PayrollSupportContact]

Record of Employment (ROE)

I understand that:

- ☐ [Agency Name] is responsible for issuing my Record of Employment (ROE) when required under applicable legislation.
- ☐ ROE may be issued when there is an interruption of earnings or when required by government regulations.

Human Rights & Equal Employment Opportunity Acknowledgement

- ☐ I understand that the Agency provides equal employment opportunities and does not discriminate based on protected grounds under the Ontario Human Rights Code.
- ☐ I agree to maintain a respectful workplace free from discrimination and harassment.

Hours of Work, Overtime & Wage Compliance

Excess Hours

I acknowledge and understand that:

- ☐ I must receive approval from [Agency Name] and/or the client supervisor before working additional hours beyond my scheduled shift.
- ☐ All hours worked, including extra hours and overtime, must be accurately recorded on my timesheet.
- ☐ I will not work unpaid hours or alter my timesheet to reflect inaccurate hours.
- ☐ Overtime will be paid according to applicable employment standards legislation and based on approved hours worked.
- ☐ Working unauthorized additional hours may result in corrective action.
- ☐ I understand that client operational requirements may require schedule changes, and I must communicate any availability concerns with [Agency Name].

Reporting to Work & Minimum Pay Requirements

I understand that when I accept a scheduled assignment through [Agency Name], I am expected to report to work as scheduled and be available to perform my assigned duties.

I acknowledge that:

- ☐ If I report to work as scheduled and the assignment is cancelled, shortened, or no work is provided, [Agency Name] will review the situation and process any applicable pay entitlements in accordance with employment standards legislation.
- ☐ Eligibility for minimum reporting pay, including the Ontario three-hour rule where applicable, depends on the requirements and exceptions under applicable legislation.
- ☐ I must notify [Agency Name] promptly regarding any assignment changes, cancellations, or concerns.

Minimum Wage & Pay Rate Changes

I understand that:

- ☐ My agreed pay rate will be communicated to me by [Agency Name] before starting an assignment.
- ☐ [Agency Name] will comply with all applicable Employment Standards legislation regarding minimum wage.

Attendance & No-Show Policy

Attendance Expectations

I understand that reliable attendance is an important requirement of my employment with [Agency Name] and is essential to maintaining successful client assignments. I understand that accepting an assignment creates an expectation that I will report as scheduled unless prevented by emergency or illness.

I agree that:

- ☐ I will report to my scheduled shifts on time and be ready to perform my assigned duties.
- ☐ I will follow the schedule provided by [Agency Name] and/or the assigned client.
- ☐ I will notify my [Agency Name] recruiter or designated contact as soon as possible if I am unable to attend my scheduled shift.
- ☐ I understand that failing to provide proper notice may negatively impact my assignment.

Absence & Call-Off Procedure

If I am unable to attend work:

- ☐ I must notify [Agency Name] and/or the client contact before my scheduled shift start time.
- ☐ I must provide accurate information regarding my absence and expected availability.
- ☐ Repeated absences, late arrivals, or failure to communicate may result in removal from the assignment.

No-Show Policy

A no-show is considered when an employee:

Does not report to a scheduled shift; and

Does not provide reasonable notice to [Agency Name] and/or the client.

I understand that:

- ☐ A no-show may result in immediate review of my assignment status.
- ☐ Continued attendance concerns may affect my eligibility for future assignments.
- ☐ [Agency Name] will review circumstances before taking appropriate action.

Workplace Conduct & PPE

I agree that:

- ☐ I will follow all workplace health and safety rules, procedures, and instructions provided by [Agency Name] and/or the client.
- ☐ I will complete any required safety training before or during my assignment.

Fitness for Work Commitment

[Agency Name] is committed to maintaining a safe, professional, and respectful workplace for all employees and clients.

I understand and agree that:

- ☐ I must report to work fit, alert, and able to safely perform my assigned duties.
- ☐ I must not be under the influence of alcohol, illegal drugs, or any substance that may impair my ability to work safely.
- ☐ I must not possess, use, distribute, or consume illegal substances while working or on client premises.
- ☐ I will follow all drug and alcohol policies and safety requirements established by [Agency Name] and assigned client workplaces.
- ☐ I will immediately report any safety concerns related to impairment that may affect myself or others.

Client Workplace Requirements

I understand that:

- ☐ Certain client assignments may have additional drug and alcohol safety requirements due to the nature of the workplace or job duties.
- ☐ I am responsible for complying with reasonable workplace safety procedures and client policies.
- ☐ Failure to comply with workplace safety requirements may affect my assignment eligibility.

Medication Disclosure

- ☐ If I believe a medication may affect my ability to perform work safely, I will seek medical advice and notify [Agency Name] if workplace accommodation or safety measures may be required.

Confidentiality & Information Protection Acknowledgement

Confidentiality Commitment

I understand that during my employment with [Agency Name] and while working at client locations, I may have access to confidential information.

I agree that:

- ☐ I will keep confidential information private and will not share it with unauthorized individuals.
- ☐ I will not disclose client information, business processes, production details, customer information, employee information, or internal documents.
- ☐ I will only use confidential information for the purpose of performing my assigned duties.
- ☐ I will follow all confidentiality requirements and workplace policies of [Agency Name] and assigned clients.
- ☐ I will immediately report any accidental disclosure, loss, or misuse of confidential information.

Use of Company & Client Information

I understand that:

- ☐ Client documents, records, systems, and information must only be accessed for authorized work purposes.
- ☐ I must not copy, remove, photograph, or share confidential workplace information without permission.
- ☐ My confidentiality obligations continue even after my assignment or employment with [Agency Name] ends.

Return of Agency & Client Property

- ☐ I understand that I am responsible for returning all Agency or client property when requested or when my assignment/employment ends.

Candidate Declaration & Acknowledgement

By signing this document, I confirm that:

- ☐ I have reviewed and understood all [Agency Name] employment policies and acknowledgements included in this package.
- ☐ I understand my responsibilities as a [Agency Name] employee assigned to client workplaces.
- ☐ I agree to follow [Agency Name] policies, client workplace rules, safety requirements, and applicable employment standards.
- ☐ I confirm that the information provided by me during the onboarding process is accurate and complete.
- ☐ I understand that if I have any questions, concerns, or doubts regarding any information, policy, process, or employment-related matter, including any item that may not be specifically covered in this package, I may contact [Agency Name] Recruiter for clarification and assistance.
- ☐ If further support is required, I may contact [Agency Name] through the official contact information provided by the company.

I acknowledge that I have had the opportunity to review this package, ask questions, and seek clarification regarding any information before signing this acknowledgement.

- ☐ I confirm that I have read and understood this section.

Candidate Name: [Candidate.FirstName][Candidate.LastName]

Candidate Signature:

Workplace Violence & Harassment Policy

Policy Statement

The [Agency Name] is committed to providing a work environment free from violence and harassment, where all employees are treated with respect, dignity, and fairness.

Violence and workplace harassment by any person in the workplace, including employees, clients, customers, supervisors, contractors, and other workplace parties, will not be tolerated.

Employees found to have engaged in harassment or workplace violence may be subject to corrective action, up to and including removal from assignment, suspension, or termination of employment.

Employees may also be subject to corrective action if they:

- Interfere with the resolution of a harassment complaint.
- Retaliate against an individual for reporting a harassment concern or participating in an investigation.
- Make a knowingly false complaint intended to cause harm to another individual.

This policy applies to all current [Agency Name] employees, including:

- Full-time employees
- Part-time employees
- Casual employees
- Contract employees
- Temporary employees
- Employees assigned to client workplaces

This policy also applies during recruitment, onboarding, training, and other work-related activities.

Workplace Harassment

Workplace harassment means engaging in a course of vexatious comments or conduct against another person in a workplace because of factors including:

Race, nationality, ethnic origin, colour, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, family status, disability, and other protected grounds under applicable legislation.

where the comment or conduct is known, or reasonably should be known, to be unwelcome.

Forms of workplace harassment may include, but are not limited to:

- ☐ Offending, humiliating, or disrespecting someone physically or verbally.
- ☐ Threatening or intimidating someone.
- ☐ Making unwelcome jokes, comments, or statements.
- ☐ Engaging in repeated behaviour that creates an uncomfortable or hostile work environment.

Workplace Sexual Harassment

Workplace sexual harassment means making a sexual solicitation, advance, or comment where the person making the advance knows, or reasonably should know, that it is unwelcome.

Forms of sexual harassment may include, but are not limited to:

- ☐ Offensive or humiliating behaviour related to a person's gender or sexuality.
- ☐ Behaviour of a sexual nature that creates an intimidating, hostile, unwelcome, or offensive work environment.
- ☐ Behaviour that could reasonably be considered to place sexual conditions on employment opportunities, benefits, or advancement.

Reasonable actions taken by the [Agency Name] relating to the management, direction, and supervision of employees or the workplace are not considered workplace harassment.

Filing a Complaint

A workplace harassment complaint may be submitted to the [Agency Name] through the designated contact person or assigned recruiter.

Complaints may be made:

- ☐ Verbally
- ☐ In writing

If a complaint is made verbally, the [Agency Name] will document the details provided by the person making the complaint.

Employees should provide information including:

- What happened.
- When the incident occurred.
- Where the incident occurred.
- Frequency of the behaviour (if applicable).
- Names of individuals involved.
- Names of witnesses (if applicable).

The [Agency Name] will notify the person against whom the complaint has been made that a complaint has been filed and provide details of the concerns raised, where appropriate.

The [Agency Name] will make reasonable efforts to review and resolve complaints in a timely manner.

Complaint Investigation

The [Agency Name] and, where applicable, a representative of the client workplace will investigate and address workplace harassment complaints in a fair, respectful, and timely manner.

The [Agency Name] will not disclose information regarding a complaint or investigation except when required to:

- Protect employees and workplace parties.
- Conduct an investigation.
- Take corrective action.
- Meet legal or regulatory requirements.

Managers, supervisors, employees, and client workplace representatives are expected to comply with this policy.

No person will be penalized or disciplined for:

- Reporting workplace harassment.
- Participating in an investigation.
- Providing information related to a complaint.

Investigation Process

Where informal resolution or mediation is not appropriate or does not resolve the concern, a formal investigation may be conducted.

Investigations will be completed by an individual with appropriate knowledge, experience, and training. The [Agency Name] may use a third-party investigator where appropriate.

The investigator may:

- Interview the person who made the complaint.
- Interview the person against whom the complaint was made.
- Interview identified witnesses.
- Review relevant documents and information.

Individuals interviewed may have the opportunity to review their statements to confirm accuracy.

The investigator may prepare a report that includes:

- Description of the allegations.
- Response from the person involved.
- Summary of witness information.
- Findings regarding whether harassment occurred based on the information reviewed.

Substantiated Complaint & Corrective Action

If a complaint is found to be substantiated, the Director of [Agency Name] will determine appropriate action.

Corrective action may include:

- Coaching or additional training.
- Written warning.
- Removal from client assignment.
- Suspension.
- Transfer.
- Termination of employment.

The parties involved may be informed of the outcome, where appropriate and permitted.

Privacy & Confidentiality

All individuals involved in a workplace harassment complaint are expected to respect privacy and confidentiality.

Discussion of complaints should be limited to individuals who require the information for legitimate purposes.

The [Agency Name] will take reasonable steps to protect personal information and maintain confidentiality throughout the complaint process.

Policy Review

The [Agency Name] will review this policy periodically, or as required, to ensure it continues to reflect applicable workplace health and safety requirements and best practices.

Employee Acknowledgement

I acknowledge that:

- ☐ I have received and reviewed the [Agency Name] Workplace Violence & Harassment Policy.
- ☐ I understand that workplace violence, harassment, sexual harassment, and retaliation are not permitted.
- ☐ I understand my responsibility to maintain a safe and respectful workplace.
- ☐ I understand the process for reporting workplace concerns.
- ☐ I agree to comply with this policy while employed by the [Agency Name] and while assigned to client workplaces.
- ☐ I confirm that I have read and understood this section.
